

ANVILL Student Instructions–Voiceboards

ANVILL (anvill.uoregon.edu) is a tool to practice various language skills, particularly listening and speaking. Your instructor has chosen to include it as part of your out-of-class work to better prepare you for what you'll be asked to do in-class (and in real life): demonstrate your understanding of “authentic” language and respond to it accurately and appropriately.

Getting Started

1. Signing in. You can use Google, Facebook, or create an ANVILL account.
2. If you click on the Dashboard or the Hamburger menu  in the upper left, you can see your existing lessons.
3. Click on one to start working.
4. If your teacher sent you a link to a lesson, you can just click on it, and ANVILL will take you through a similar login procedure.

Voiceboard: Improve your ability to speak on a variety of topics. Offer feedback to your classmates. Get feedback from your instructor.

Voiceboard for Speaking Practice

1. Your teacher will send you an ANVILL link, asking you to join her class. You can click it; it's safe.
2. Once there you'll see your assignment(s). Usually they involve responding to a prompt from your teacher.
3. Think about the topic and write down a few ideas. If applicable, listen to 1-2 of the messages already posted. Did they give you any ideas for your message?

Adding an Audio/Video/Text Message

1. Click “Add Message” and write a brief comment about the contents of your audio/video file).
2. Click “+” to record your video or audio message.
3. Click the camera icon to toggle between a video recording and an audio recording. (You can record, upload a file from your phone, or link to a YouTube movie).
4. Click “Begin recording”.
5. Click “Done” when you're finished. Play it back. If it sounds OK, click “Looks Good”. Otherwise, “Try Again”.
6. Listen to it again. If it sounds OK, click “Send” to submit your message. That's it. Be patient—it can take a couple of minutes for your message to appear.

Responding to Others, Commenting on your Own

1. Click “Add a comment” and make a brief comment about what classmates have said (or you).
2. Click “+” to add media to your message.
3. Click “Send” to submit your message. That's it.
